

Joint conference
Rescue Archaeology and the Council for Kentish Archaeology

RESCUE ARCHAEOLOGY

Discovery, excavation and strategy at four major sites, spanning five decades

At

Sevenoaks Community Centre,

Cramptons Road, off Otford Road, Sevenoaks, Kent TN14 5DN
Near Bat and Ball station

On

Saturday 19th April 2008

2.00p.m. till 5.15p.m.

Verulamium: Roman City

50 years of excavation, re-interpretation and rescue by

Rosalind Niblett

Londinium: Roman Forum

Pioneering rescue-excavations in 1968 by

Brian Philp

Stonehenge: an uncertain future?

Centuries of concern for a world heritage site by

Kate Fielden

Durrington Walls: a Neolithic Spectacular

The discovery of a large village by

Prof Mike Parker-Pearson

Tickets £4.00

Tickets and passes in advance available from C.K.A., 7, Sandy Ridge, Borough Green, Kent. TN15 8HP. S.A.E. please.

Web site www.the-cka.fsnet.co.uk

This information is correct at the time of publication